Nature of Noncompliance

On March 22, 2025, Miranda was arrested in Sunnyside, Washington and detained on domestic violence assault charges. According to a Sunnyside Police Department incident report (#25S02135), officers were dispatched to a residence regarding a domestic assault. Miranda fled from the residence prior to officers' arrival. Upon arriving to the residence, officers contacted the alleged victim who reported having a verbal argument with her husband (Miranda). She further reported the argument became physical as both she and Miranda were pushing and hitting each other. The alleged victim further noted her two children were inside the residence at the time of the incident. The children were in their bedrooms and did not observe the incident but heard yelling. Officers observed visible injuries on the alleged victim's face, neck, and upper chest area. Officers later located Miranda, but he continued to flee from officers. Officers eventually were able to contact Miranda and placed him into custody without further incident. Miranda denied any assault had taken place and there was no evidence of injuries located on his person. Miranda stated he and his wife had a verbal argument, and he left the residence.

Subsequently, a No Contact Order was issued by the Court to protect the alleged victim. Miranda was provided a copy of the order and release from custody on the assault charge on March 25, 2025. According to police reports, Miranda allegedly returned to his wife's residence upon releasing from custody on March 25, 2025. The alleged victim contacted police who responded to the residence and located Miranda in the backyard. Miranda was arrested and detained for violation of a no contact court order on March 25, 2025. His current custody status and whereabouts are unknown.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation: Based on the above allegations, probable cause has been established that a violation of supervised release has been committed. It is recommended the Court order the issuance of a Warrant and Order to Show cause why defendant's term of supervised release should not be revoked.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
